RIFT IN THE DARK CLOUDS

Prospects for Latonia's Opening Appear Much Brighter.

Encouraging Reports on Influenza Situation on Both Sides of the Ohio River.

Cincinnati, O., October 19.—There is now every reason for believing that the horsemen and others who have been so patiently waiting for the time to come when it would be perfectly safe to proceed with the postponed opening of the Latonia Jockey Club's fall race meeting will be rewarded by the inauguration of the sport on Thursday next. The influenza situation on both sides of the Ohio River in this locality is now so satisfactory that the removal of the ban against public gatherings imposed by the health authorities as a preventive measure is only a question of a few days, according to reports from well informed sources.

If the fine weather which has marked the last week or two in this locality continues, the Latonia Jockey Club is in line for a banner opening. In spite of the repeated deferment of the opening date, it is evident that keen interest is entertained by local patrons of racing in the approaching meeting. One of the greatest factors in the success of the meeting will be the superb condition of the seven hundred or more horses in training at the track. The two or three weeks that will have elapsed between the close of the Louisville meetings and the Latonia opening has given trainers an opportunity for the fitting of all their horses that they never before had in connection with a Kentucky meeting and the result is expected to show itself in a splendid entry list for the launching of the sport.

With fast track conditions prevailing, the following are looked upon as probable starters in the $4,000 Latonia Autumn Inaugural Handicap, the mile and a sixteenth race which will have the place of honor on the opening day program:

Horse.	Owner.	Wt.
Rancher	G. M. Hendrie	119
Manager Waite	T. C. McDowell	116
Blackie Daw	A. L. Kirby	110
Fruit Cake	A. K. Macomber	110
Freecutter	G. J. Long	108
Tumbler	M. Goldblatt	107
Bribed Voter	J. B. Goodman	107
Viva America	C. T. Worthington	107
Faux-Col	Williams Bros.	103
Beaverkill	S. M. Henderson	102

GRAND CONTEST IS EXPECTED.

All of these horses and others among the thirty-three eligibles for the race are in active training for this important event and there will be general disappointment among those who have been giving consideration to the possibilities if it does not turn out to be one of the finest contests of the Kentucky fall season.

It has been evident during the past few days that Track Superintendent Nolte knew what he was talking about when in advance of the coming of the horses here from Louisville he predicted that the Latonia track would be faster than ever this fall, as a result of the resurfacing to which it was subjected during the summer. The recent rain has settled the new top soil in the most satisfactory manner and the track is now in such superb condition that it is generally agreed on all sides that the track records, fast as they are, will be in constant danger of reduction once the meeting opens.

Racing Secretary J. B. Campbell will begin the work of issuing badges to trainers, owners, jockeys and others in his department on Monday. General Manager Hachmeister has announced a change in the method of collecting the war tax on all badges for the approaching meeting. Instead of making the collection for the whole meeting in advance, which was the plan followed last spring, holders of badges will be required to pay the war tax day by day as the badge is used.

War tax tickets will be on sale at the entrance to the track each day, but those who desire to save themselves the inconvenience of a daily visit to the war tax booth will be permitted to buy as many of the war tax tickets as they please at one time. A convenient arrangement has been made whereby a book of war tax tickets may be purchased for $2, which will cover the war tax charge for ten days on men's tickets. As usual, the charge for the regular admission ticket used by the general public will include the war tax charge.

Manager Hachmeister announces that soldiers and sailors in uniform will be admitted to the track without charge throughout the meeting.

SIR ADAM BECK'S HORSE SHOW WINNERS

Sir Adam Beck, the well-known Canadian turfman, is meeting with considerable success at the Columbus, Ohio, Horse Show, the representatives of his Westminster Stable winning a number of prizes. Tommy Smith, who does most of the riding for Sir Adam, suffered a broken ankle and rib in a fall Wednesday.

BILLY KELLY--ETERNAL

SPECIAL RACE POSTPONED TO MONDAY, OCT. 28--HOPE TO RESUME RACING AT THE LAUREL TRACK THIS WEEK

Laurel, Md., October 19.—The great two-year-old special originally dated to be run at Laurel Park on Thursday, October 24, with Billy Kelly and Eternal as the two participants, the outcome of which the racing fraternity has agreed shall be accepted as determinative of the juvenile championship of 1918 and which might appropriately be called the Liberty Bond-Red Cross two-year-old race, has been postponed to Monday, October 28. The change in date was made necessary because of the uncertainty over the resumption of racing at Laurel. The Maryland State Fair Association, of which Matt J. Winn is general manager, entertains high hopes of being able to resume the sport at Laurel some time next week. Latest reports indicate considerable improvement in the influenza situation throughout the whole state of Maryland, so much so that it is expected that the Board of Health will shortly lift the ban against public gatherings. Such action on the part of the health authorities will permit the reopening of Laurel Park and the continuation of the splendid race meeting that was in progress when the fateful epidemic brought proceedings to a sudden halt.

The special race between Billy Kelly and Eternal will be a Liberty Bond-Red Cross race exclusively, for neither Commander J. K. L. Ross of Montreal nor James McClelland of Kentucky, the owners respectively of Billy Kelly and Eternal, will get one penny out of the race. The $10,000 which the Maryland State Fair Corporation will turn over to the owner of the winner in the form of Liberty Bonds after the finish will be turned over by the owner of the winner to one of the two North American Red Cross organizations, the Canadian in the event Billy Kelly triumphs, the American in case Eternal drives home in front of the Dick Welles gelding. And with these bonds of the Maryland State Fair Corporation the owner of the winner will turn over to one of the Red Cross organizations $10,000 in fourth Liberty Loan bonds which will have been lost by the owner of the loser. The great special is to be a $10,000 a side affair and the best the owner of the winner will do will be to save his stake. The race will be known as the John R. McLean Memorial Cup. Edward B. McLean will present the successful owner with a golden trophy.

SECOND GREAT RED CROSS RACE.

And when this race shall have been run the second great Red Cross race in a baker's dozen of months will have been run at Laurel Park, for after the finish of the $10,000 race at one mile and a quarter between Hourless and Omar Khayyam at Laurel Park last October Major August Belmont of New York turned over to the American Red Cross the $10,000 Hourless won when he beat Omar. If Omar had won, Wilfrid Viau, a Canadian like Commander Ross, would have turned over the English colt's winnings to the Canadian Red Cross. The Laurel Park specials of 1917 and 1918 differ in that in 1917 the three-year-old champion of 1917 raced one mile and a quarter for $10,000, but no side bets of consequence. The sweepstakes were $300 a side, while the juvenile stars of 1918 will race three-quarters of a mile for $10,000 a side, with $10,000 added. Neither Major August Belmont nor Mr. Viau was ever much of a bettor. Commander Ross and Mr. McClelland would rather back their hands when they think they are right than eat a canvas back duck. The coming special would be a better race at seven-eighths perhaps, but Laurel Park track is a mile track of the old-fashioned kind and to run seven-eighths over it horses must start on a turn.

There was talk of making an open race of this special, but nothing came of it. Billy Kelly and Eternal, now that Dunboyne, the Futurity winner, is retired, are really the only two-year-olds left that could be considered worthy to start in a championship race. Each colt has his admirers, Billy Kelly probably more than Eternal, and from the way things are shaping up he will probably go to the post favorite. Both are admitted to be youngsters of high class.

Billy Kelly, for which Commander Ross paid $27,500 at Saratoga in August after he had beaten nearly every good colt and filly in training, is acclaimed the fastest two-year-old gelding that has raced since Salvidere won the Saratoga Special and a half dozen other rich and important stakes in 1906 and beat Peter Pan, Ballot and the other brilliant two-year-olds of his time. After the son of Dick Welles and Glena had won the Flash, United States Hotel and Sanford Memorial Stakes and the Grab Bag Handicap at Saratoga in August, earning all told a matter of $20,000 in less than four weeks' racing—he did not start during the last week of the August meeting—Handicapper Vosburgh paid a higher tribute to his speed and courage than he had ever paid to the racing attributes of any other two-year-old. Mr. Vosburgh asked Billy Kelly to take up 140 pounds in the Adirondack Handicap. Commander Ross sidestepped the Adirondack.

But Commander Ross did not know that James McClelland and his trainer, Kimball Patterson, had always thought they had a better two-year-old in Eternal than he had in Billy Kelly, and that, in their minds, the reason Billy Kelly had beaten Eternal in the United States Hotel Stakes was that the Sweep colt had been caught unprepared at the starting gate; also that the reason Eternal had not filled engagements he had in common with Billy Kelly, in which he might have met the Dick Welles gelding at an advantage, was that they had the $30,000 Hopeful in mind. They were desirous, after Eternal's failure in the United States Hotel Stakes, to have him come to the Hopeful with all his allowances because they thought that, under 115 pounds, he could win in one brilliant race more money than five victories had netted Billy Kelly. The event justified their patience. Eternal, thanks to his allowances, won the Hopeful in a field of nineteen of the fastest in training, after having got so much the worst of the start he appeared to be beaten on the turn into the homestretch. By his brilliant rush through the homestretch, a rush that overhauled and carried him far past the more fortunate Daydue, War Marvel and Lady Rosebud, to win with speed to spare, Eternal proved his unusual merit. He demonstrated twice at Aqueduct—once when he shouldered 126 pounds and defeated War Marvel under 112 and some other youngsters even more lightly weighted; and once when he packed 130 pounds and beat Mormon, Cirrus, Sweep On and two or three others to which he gave from seven to fifteen pounds and a beating, both races being at three-quarters of a mile—that as a weight carrier he ranked with Billy Kelly.

BILLY KELLY PLAIN LITTLE HORSE.

In appearance these youngsters are not at all alike. Billy Kelly is a plain little horse, much of a gelding in front, but well put up from his shoulders back, which would never win a second look from a person not familiar with his racing record. Eternal is a splendidly proportioned horse of fine length, beautiful shoulders, a faultless back and splendid quarters, but not tall. He would take a prize in any show ring. Billy Kelly, which has never discovered what racing folk call a good turn of early speed, is invariably slow about getting in his stride, but a capital stretch runner. Eternal, it seems, can run equally well whether he is out in front or in behind. In his first winning races at Aqueduct and Saratoga he spreadeagled his opponents. In the Hopeful and in the races he won at Aqueduct he waited on the leaders and came gallantly through in the homestretch.

That the two colts will be thoroughly fit when they meet at Laurel Park may be taken for granted. Billy Kelly is keeping in condition by racing. Twice since he arrived in Maryland he has beaten older horses in sprints of three-quarters of a mile, the best of the seasoned campaigners to succumb to his speed being the veteran Leochares. Twice he has beaten speedy two-year-olds with the same ease he displayed while he was winning rich stakes at Saratoga. Eternal has not started since his victory over Mormon in the Oakdale Handicap at Aqueduct. But since his arrival at Laurel Park to prepare for his struggle with Billy Kelly he has twice worked three-quarters of a mile in better than 1:15. Patterson, who knew before he came to Maryland how fast his Sweep colt could run, has not asked Eternal for his best speed. He has been content to keep his colt fresh.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

Hartford Insurance—John A. Payne, General Agent, Cincinnati, O.—[Advt.

Colonel W. L. Abram, prominent merchant of Louisville, Ky., is being mentioned as a probable appointee by Governor Stanley on the Kentucky Racing Commission.

Peter Hagan, the ex-steeplechase jockey, whose home was in Toronto, Ont., and who formerly rode on the Canadian circuit as a free lance, died a few days ago at Baltimore of the Spanish influenza.

The three-year-old colt Ultima Thule has not raced up to the high hopes entertained for this son of Ultimus. Early in the year he showed dazzling speed in his training and was expected to make a strong bid for the highest honors in the three-year-old division.

Paul Fox, trainer for M. Kornbloom, owner of Lively, met with an accident Thursday morning at Empire City track that fortunately did not result seriously. Trainer Fox was leading Lively across the track when he got too close to the ill-tempered Marmite, which let out both hind legs and caught Mr. Fox on the shoulder blades, knocking him unconscious. He was given "first aid" treatment and was soon about, apparently none the worse for his accident.

RACING LOAN OVER THE TOP

Saturday's Pledges at Empire City Bring Total to $2,375,350.

Governor Whitman and Biggest Crowd of Fall Season See Spectacular Racing.

New York, October 19.—For the first time in a generation a governor of the Empire State visited a metropolitan race course. Governor Charles S. Whitman, bound on a holy mission, entered the grounds after the second race with a distinguished escort. After loud cheering he was introduced by Mayor Wm. L. Wallin, of Yonkers, to an attentive gathering. He warned of the nation's need, the 380,000 New Yorkers who were over there, and made a touching appeal for them and their comfort. His remarks were followed by more cheering and pledging, until racing's Liberty Loan quota went over the top with $2,375,350 to its credit. "A fine patriotic crowd and a credit to their state and nation," was the governor's comment.

James Butler, master of the Empire City track, was the day's largest contributor with $50,000. John J. McGraw, the New York baseball manager, with $40,000, and ex-Congressman George W. Loft, through a representative, with $30,000, Arnold Rothstein, with $20,000, bringing his total to $120,000, were some of the highest subscribers. Congressman Loft's contribution was brought to $105,000 through today's pledge.

Five autographed orders for $1,000 bonds with President Wilson's signature were bid in within two minutes by Tom Shaw, Fred Beck, R. H. Brown, Phil Abrahams and Jack Doyle of Detroit with $10,000 each. E. G. Soule, for his daughter, Miss Beatrice, took $10,000; Charles Elwell, the authority on bridge; Macey Bloomenthal, John Shaughnessy and Charles Kissel were the other $10,000 subscribers.

E. J. Ryan, chief committeeman, worked like a Trojan. His efforts during the campaign have been tireless and he made a supreme effort today. His labors were rewarded with $512,700 (included in total). During Governor Whitman's speech several army planes hovered over the course.

The crowd was the greatest of the fall season, attracted by the executive's visit and the first class program. It was fine, warm weather that contributed its share and most of the finishes in the races were of the hair-raising order.

It is probable that the regulars who have made daily subscriptions have given a greater proportion of their wealth to the Liberty Loan than any other class. R. H. Brown, whose son is in the trenches, made cash subscriptions daily until Friday, when he was forced to adopt the government payment plan for his final $15,000 subscription.

FEATURE TO SPEEDY NATURALIST.

The racing feature of today's program was the Pelham Bay Handicap, a dash of one mile and a sixteenth with $1,500 added. The enthusiasm of the crowd knew no bounds when the horses paraded to the post led by a pony whose rider carried the Stars and Stripes, while the band played the national anthem. The crowd arose en masse and joined in singing the song dear to the hearts of all Americans. Wild cheers followed and then the race began. J. E. Widener, the popular Philadelphia sportsman, furnished the winner in his speedy French-bred Naturalist. The latter, away fast, set a fast pace throughout, but was driving to the limit at the end, Robinson taking no chances with Roamer, and Corn Tassel finishing like a flash. Gallant old Roamer gave another game exhibition, outlasting Corn Tassel for second place and gaining with every stride on the winner.

The finish in the first race was one of the best and closest witnessed throughout the whole fall season. Out the Way set a sizzling pace to the final eighth, where he was joined by Star Spangled and Ultima Thule. The crowd was compelled to await the official placing. Thunderclap, the only two-year-old in the race, had no chance after the barrier's rise, his rider, little Myers, being unprepared, and was practically left.

The presence of Koh-i-Noor caused many withdrawals from the third race, robbing the event of all its promised attractiveness. The Arlington filly had only to gallop along at her own pace to win by eight lengths. Reveler, second choice in the speculation, bled on the turn, permitting Air Man to secure second place easily.

Everest, at odds-on, accounted for the fifth race after experiencing considerable difficult maintaining a contending position. Lyke's gameness alone saved him. Orderly had him pinned on the inside rail for the final three-eighths. The latter tired in the final drive, and again the official numbers were necessary to relieve the crowd's suspense, the finish being so close. Jack Mount, hard ridden, closed fast and was going fastest at the end and would have beaten both Everest and Orderly in a few more strides.

Koh-i-Noor was again boosted $600 over her entered price by Joseph Vendig, at which figure Edward Arlington again protected her.

PLANS FOR TRANSPORTATION TO CUBA

Manager Brown to Return from Havana and Announce Details of Arrangements Made.

Cincinnati, O., October 19.—Charles H. Lansdale, who is looking after the interests of the Cuba-American Jockey Club in the west, has received word from Havana that H. D. Brown, president and general manager of the Oriental Park track, where racing is conducted each winter for a period of some one hundred days, will return to the United States from a flying trip to Cuba during the coming week and will visit this locality to confer with horsemen who may be planning to race their stables in Cuba during the winter racing season scheduled to open on Thanksgiving day, November 28, and continue for one hundred or more days.

Manager Brown went to Havana a week or two ago to look over some important improvements that have been made during the past summer at the club's beautiful racing plant in Marianao, a suburb of Havana. Upon his return, details of the arrangements for the transportation of American stables to Cuba next month will be announced. It is expected that they will closely follow the arrangements of last year, Manager Brown having made the announcement that horsemen may count upon their being as good as then, in spite of war conditions, and possibly better.

The recent announcement of the stake and purse program for the Cuban season has made a most favorable impression upon American horsemen and indications are not lacking that the movement of stables to Cuba from this country next month will be a record-breaker. With thirteen stakes, ranging in value from $1,200 added to $2,000 added and many overnight purses of $600 to $800 daily offered by the Oriental Park management, horsemen who have been in the practice of racing in Cuba since the establishment of the sport there under its present auspices in 1915 are planning to return there this coming winter to a man and they will be reinforced by many a newcomer, including some important eastern stables, whose presence will tend to improve the quality of the racing.

MINIMUM PURSE TO BE $500

Last winter the minimum purse value at Oriental Park was $400. During the approaching season there will be no purse of less than $500, Manager Brown having decided upon this substantial increase both on account of the growing importance of Cuban racing and to enable the horsemen who take part in the meeting to meet the increased expenses of transportation and other mounting costs of maintaining a racing stable growing out of the world war.

Mr. Lansdale has just returned from a trip to Detroit, where he supervised the shipment to Cuba of fifteen pari-mutuel machines of the Hachmeister type, recently purchased by the Cuba-American Jockey Club to be added to the pari-mutuel equipment at Oriental Park. This will practically double the pari-mutuel facilities at the Cuban track. Last year seventeen machines were used and at times proved inadequate to handle the volume of speculation. The bookmakers will operate at the Cuban tracks, as in the past, in competition with the mutuel machines, enabling patrons of the track to follow their own inclinations as to which method of backing their fancies they may make use of.

A large consignment of hay and oats to be used as feed for the horses going from this country to engage in the racing has already been sent to Cuba, together with the mutuel tickets, badges and other paraphernalia necessary to the conduct of the long meeting.

It is expected that the movement of horses from the Kentucky tracks to Havana next month will be especially heavy. There will also be extensive shipments from Maryland. A wire from Atlanta yesterday brought the information that something like one hundred horses that have been engaged in minor racing throughout the south have gathered there and are awaiting facilities for shipment to the Cuban track.

ESCOBA CERTAIN TO RACE NEXT YEAR

Has Entirely Recovered from Leg Trouble—Will Serve a Few Mares Before Being Trained.

Lexington, Ky., October 19.—John H. Morris, master of Bosque Bonita Farm in Woodford County and keeper of the thoroughbreds owned by Kenneth D. Alexander of Spring Station, who now is a member of one of Uncle Sam's aviation divisions, was in Lexington a day or two ago and said he believes Escoba, winner of the Breeders' Futurity of 1917 and second to Exterminator in the Kentucky Derby this year, will stand training again next year.

"I do not believe his tendon was bowed, not even slightly," said Morris. "When he came back to the farm there was a small lump on his left leg in the region of the tendon. I put the leg in a plaster bandage for six weeks, and when I took off the bandage there remained a small sore, something resembling a boil. That has entirely disappeared and the leg looks as clean and sound as it ever was.

"Escoba will not be put in training this fall. We intend to keep him at the farm until after the breeding season. He will serve a few mares and then go into training. I have had no instructions relative to who may train him, but I presume he will go back to John S. Ward. It is probable also that Ward will train the two yearlings J. C. Milam broke for Mr. Alexander this fall. One is a chestnut colt by Fair Play—Starry Night (dam of Capt. Rees), whose dam was Nisbat, a half-sister to Uncle. He is a running horse, and barring a trifle shortness of the neck a perfect horse. He certainly is of stake quality. He worked a quarter in 23 and did it most impressively. The other is a bay colt by Plaudit—Antipathy. He can run too, but he is not anything like as good a horse as is the Fair Play colt. We intend to mate Starry Night with Escoba. That will be inbreeding, but we have determined to try it. Escoba, as you know, is by Broomstick—Christmas Star, by Star Shoot—Breakwater, by Hindoo. Starry Night is by Star Shoot, and her dam, Nisbat, is by Hindoo.

"Trevisco, the son of Tredennis and The Test, by John o'Gaunt—Cup of Assay, by Royal Hampton, next dam Assay, by Sterling, gave us a sample this year in the shape of a chestnut filly, dam of which is the fast mare Handzarra, by Handsel—Elzarra, by Pizarra. She is marked just like Trevisco and resembles him much in conformation, though she is finer. Trevisco seemed a good racing prospect when Alexander bought him in England, but, as you know, he failed to train satisfactorily in this country. However, he is going to make a great stock horse. His get are sure to be exceptional individuals, but of course their possession of speed will have to be determined. This year we bred sixteen mares to him, including Christmas Star and Starry Night, and they all seem to be in foal. We had hoped to breed Christmas Star and Starry Night to Broomstick, but Jimmy Rowe would listen to nothing save $1,500 for each season and no return privilege, so we decided to send them to Trevisco, knowing that if we get good runners from him through them his future as a sire will be assured."

Sires of the Winning Two-Year-Olds of This Year and the Records of Their Successful Progeny

As befits the ascension of a bright new star of the stud, Sweep not only leads the successful sires of the year in number of winning two-year-olds, but in aggregate of money won by his scions as well. Comparatively those long-time monopolists of the stallion premiership, Star Shoot and Broomstick, make a poor showing, although Star Shoot is in a tie with Peep o'Day and Uncle for second place to Sweep, each of the trio having seven winners to Sweep's eleven. Among his representatives Sweep has such superior two-year-olds as Eternal, Sweep On, Pen Rose, Regalo and Rodgers. In Milkmaid the dead sire, Peep o'Day, has one of the best fillies out, one of late ripening, but now obviously capable of coping on equal terms with the best of her age and sex. Star Shoot's best are Star Hampton and Star Realm, but far from the first flight of the year. Uncle's seven are made up of five moderate fillies and two ordinary colts. Considering the high prices his yearlings brought at Saratoga in 1917, Uncle has been distinctly a disappointment in the two-year-old racing of 1918. It is quite unaccountable, but the fact is outstanding. Celt is alone with six winners, of which Dunboyne is one of the best of the year. Two Belmont sires, Fair Play and Tracery, are the sires with five winners each, Cirrus probably being the best of the ten. Nine sires have four winners each, such successful two-year-olds as Elfin Queen, by Disguise; Hannibal, by Olambala; Passing Shower, by Ormondale; Be Frank, by Sir John Johnson; War Marvel, by Spanish Prince, and Dottie Vandiver, by Trap Rock, coming from this group. Sires with three winners each are sixteen in number. One of these is Dick Welles with the star two-year-old of the year to his credit. Besides the transcendant Billy Kelly, he also sent another good two-year-old to the races in Major Parke. Plaudit's three include the fleet Col. Taylor, and Madge F. does credit to Voorhees. Other items of interest are to be gleaned from the following presentation of the winning two-year-olds of 1918, arranged under their sires and giving their records up to October 1:

Went to post at 5:05. At post 5 minutes. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. OVER THERE, off forwardly, raced into the lead on the last turn and, drawing away in the stretch, won easing up. DELAWARE ran a good race and made a game finish. SEA WAY, shuffled back at the start, closed a gap and finished with a rush. MAGGIE MAITLAND ran well and had no mishaps. DIFFERENT EYES set a fast pace, but tired badly in the final eighth. WAR CRY began slowly and came wide on the last turn. PETROL lacked early speed and tired after racing into third place.

Scratched—40126 Summer Sigh, 112; 40001 Drummond, 112; 39808 Tapageur, 112; Heroisme, 112.

Overweights—Delaware, 2 pounds.

COLONEL VENNIE MAY NOT RACE AGAIN

Cincinnati, O., October 19.—This was another day of comparative inactivity in training operations at Latonia. Few of the seven hundred horses awaiting next Thursday's opening of the local racing season were asked to do anything in the way of speed trials.

The most notable move of the day was by O. A. Bianchi's crack three-year-old Sennings Park, which went three-eighths in 35⅗. This good colt went amiss after racing promisingly at the Louisville spring meetings and has only recently shown indications of a return to his good form. He is among the 141 eligibles for the $10,000 Queen City Handicap, the richest race of the west for horses of his age, which is scheduled to be run at Latonia. He seems to have entirely recovered from the soreness that marked his work in midsummer.

Other horses that were out for exercise of a slow character included Viva America, Beaverkill, Yenghee, Basil, Presumption, Grasmere, Miles Finlen, Marasmus, Cane Run and Spearlene.

Jefferson Livingston's good horse Colonel Vennie may never race again. He broke down during a work-out in company with Spearlene Friday, after showing soreness and pulling up lame in previous work-outs.

Scapegrace, a two-year-old in the string raced by J. O. Keene and C. B. Head in the name of the Waldeck Stable, broke a leg while at exercise and was destroyed.

Other work-outs noted today included:

Bradley's Choice—Three-eighths in 38.

Diamond—Three-eighths in 36⅗.

Huntermann—Five-eighths in 1:03⅗.

Iwiniwin—Five-eighths in 1:02⅗.

J. Rufus—Half mile in 50.

Liberator—Five-eighths in 1:03.

Night Wind—Mile in 1:44⅗.

Sol Gilsey—Half mile in 50.

Sosius—Three-eighths in 36⅗.

War Paint—Half mile in 49⅗.

BELMONT PARK'S AERIAL MEETING

If you are so fortunate as to be at Belmont Park on the afternoon of Saturday, October 26, you will be treated to an aerial three ring circus the like of which never has been approached anywhere. At least that much was indicated by Lieut.-Col. Claude K. Rhinehardt yesterday afternoon, when at a luncheon at the Automobile Club of America he outlined his plans for the meeting to be held under the direction of the United States Air Service. The colonel revealed the fact that the show was to be held for the purpose of getting funds not alone for athletic equipment for the flyers on the five Long Island fields, but for actual winter necessities for the enlisted men—necessities such as heavy coats and gloves—which are not provided by the War Department. In addition to Col. Rhinehardt, who is in command of the first provisional wing of the air service, those present included Walter Camp, Capt. Wharton, Major Jones of the Air Medical Service, Major Martel, Capt. Carl Williams, Lieut. Dave Fultz and Lieut. Larry Baukhart. It looked much like a football gathering.

Col. Rhinehardt promises those who attend the meeting all the spectacular business and hair raising features possible with one hundred planes at his command. There will be battle formations, scout formations, bombing, nose dips, tail spins and everything else which you have read an airplane can do. Nothing will be "deleted by the censor" or anybody else and a lot will be added, for once a flyer goes up we are told there is no stopping him. It will be the first meeting under the direction of the aviation corps, for the event is the result of an order from Gen. Kenly. In addition to the flying there will be land competitions among the enlisted men. Taken all in all it shapes up as one of the biggest attractions yet offered in this country and will make an automobile race look like a Sunday school meeting.—New York Sun.

INTERESTING AND PERTINENT TOPICS OF THE DAY

THE FUTURE OF TURKEY

Whatever the new Turkish cabinet may elect to do, that country may now be regarded as out of the war for all potential purposes. With the occupation by the Serbians of Nish, their old capital, and the severance of the railway connecting the central empires with Constantinople, Turkey is cut off from all relief from Germany, even if that country were in the position to send it, which she is far from being. Thus Nemesis is overtaking the Ottoman empire, which for centuries has been a menace to the peace, progress and prosperity of southern Europe. Threatened from the east by the forces of Generals Allenby and Marshall, and from the north by the allied armies under General d'Esperey, Turkey must either yield or take the consequences of further opposition.

The world will not readily forget the grand flourish with which the Berlin-to-Constantinople Express was inaugurated, and the imposing ceremonial banquet at which the "all highest" was present with a glittering galaxy of generals and staff officers, and was fulsomely toasted by his brother monarch, Ferdinand the Faithless. Then vast visions were indulged in of the speedy completion of the line to Bagdad, and ultimately to the Indian frontier, and the establishment of that Mitteleuropa which would make the kaiser not merely Emperor of Germany but the potential ruler of the e rth. Wilhelm never swaggered, strutted, scowled and rattled his shining sword with such awe-inspiring effect. In his mind's eye he saw all the kingdoms and nations of the earth bowing before him, including that country from which he was not going to stand any nonsense after the war.

Scarcely two years have elapsed, and what a change is to be noted! Forsaken by Bulgaria, with its late ruler in exile; cut off from Turkey, with Austria trembling on the verge of revolution and internal dissolution; his armies in full retreat from France and Belgium, and he himself desperately scheming for the peace for which he must shortly humbly plead with the sword of surrender outstretched, the kaiser sees the end of all his ambitions and ruin and disaster facing himself and his country.

As for the future fate of Turkey, that will be settled at the peace conference, but we may be sure there will be no continuance of the Ottoman empire in Europe, and that its area and activities in the near east will be rigidly limited and prescribed. The Turks have in themselve the makings of a free and enlightened people, and under proper guidance and control, with freedom in their midst not merely for their own religious beliefs but also those of others, they may yet become a great nation. But they have much to expiate, and so long as they hold to the idea that they are fulfilling a religious duty in killing and exterminating "infidels" and that they are thus securing for themselves a Mohammedan's paradise, they cannot be accepted into free communion with other peoples, and they will remain more or less a race apart. It is for the really liberal elements in Turkey to assist the entente allies in setting up a stable and liberal administration in the areas which may be allotted to them.—New York Herald.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY

Chapters of the Daughters of the American Revolution in twenty-eight states contributed $200,000 to the Red Cross and $78,000 to the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. and raised $74,850 for the care of French orphans and $25,000 for civilian relief in Tolloloy, France, in the six months ending October 1. These figures are embodied in the semi-annual report of the war relief service committee.

Refugees arriving in Holland from Belgium report that a number of ships on the Eecloo canal, carrying German officers and material, were shot to pieces and sunk with all on board by Belgian troops Friday afternoon, says a dispatch from Amsterdam to the London Exchange Telegraph company. The German troops, according to the refugees, are retreating toward Ghent and Antwerp.

For the first time of its existence in 132 years no public services will be held Sunday in the Santa Barbara Mission in California, established by the Franciscan Fathers in 1786. Father Dominic explained that the spread of influenza made it necessary to close the doors of California's famous old landmark.

The record of submarine activity for the summer months, June, July and August, the period most favorable to submarines, is now practically made up and shows two highly satisfactory results, a steady fall in the allied shipping losses and a steady rise in the submarines destroyed.

Many German columns with many guns and automobiles traveling eastward are passing Sluis, a town on the Holland frontier ten miles northeast of Bruges. German sentinels have abandoned their posts on the canal at Sluis, according to information reaching London yesterday.

"The next two weeks should determine whether we shall have a spring campaign. In the meantime, we are proceeding on the theory that the war is going on and that a spring campaign on big lines must be fought," says an army officer stationed at Washington.

The evacuation of the territory of Serbia, Albania and Montenegro by forces of the central powers has been begun, according to a dispatch from Vienna forwarded by the Amsterdam correspondent of the Central News Agency.

There was another panic on the Berlin bourse Thursday, according to a dispatch to Paris from Zurich. Maritime securities dropped 25 per cent and chemical products from 10 to 20 per cent.

A Copenhagen dispatch of yesterday says: The Czechs are masters in Prague, according to a Berlin dispatch. Czech money is in circulation and the Czech flag waves over Hradchang castle.

British troops have entered the Belgian town of Eecloo, according to a dispatch from Sluis to the Telegraaf and six thousand Germans have been shut in against the Dutch frontier.

Late reports yesterday from the allied forces in Belgium show that four more towns were captured, namely Chereng, Hasmy, Vred and Catelet.

GERMANY'S GLORIOUS FLIGHT

The Allied armies are rolling back the German curtain from occupied Belgium. Cities that have been in slavery for four years are being set free at last. While at the south of the line Pershing and his Americans engage the enemy in close fighting, at the northwest the French and the British aid the Belgians to recover their lost homes. Lille, the most important city in northern France, is won back to its owners; Ostend is seized from the one side by the British navy and from the other by King Albert's army.

It may not be a German rout, but only German military art saves it from being one. It is a flight, determinedly in the direction of the German frontier. The Prussians who a year ago saw success only in the capture of Paris or the channel ports now see glory in reaching home with complete hides. Their vastest triumph now lies in having fled so rapidly as to distance the Allied infantry. In March the gleaming sword of Wilhelm was to force the world to its knees; in October the German legions are in breathless retreat.

Whether the Allies of civilization overtake and capture or kill them, or whether the Germans scurry with some safety out of the land they violated, the result will be the same. The broken Germans are running home to a broken Germany. All the dreams, including dinner in Paris and the wonderful Mitteleuropa, are vanished. The German myth of military invincibility is dissolved, the German boast of fighting it out to the death is heard no more. True, some of the Germans are kept behind to stay the rushing Yankees, and these are being mopped up. If there is no mopping along the line near the North Sea it is because the vermin move faster than the mop.

What a wealth of subjects is at the disposal of the reichstag when it meets today! It might appoint a committee of welcome to go to the frontier to meet the glorious retreat.—New York Sun.

U. S. NOTE TO AUSTRIA

Washington, October 19.—The text of the United States answer to Austria's peace note, handed to the Swedish minister today, follows:

"Sir:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your note of the 7th inst., in which you transmit a communication of the imperial and royal government of Austria-Hungary to the President. I am instructed by the President to request you to be good enough through your government to convey to the imperial and royal government the following reply:

"The President deems it his duty to say to the Austro-Hungarian government that he cannot entertain the present suggestions of that government because of certain events of utmost importance, which, occurring since the delivery of his address of the 8th of January last, have necessarily altered the attitude and responsibility of the government of the United States. Among the fourteen terms of peace which the President formulated at that time occurred the following:

"'X. The peoples of Austro-Hungary, whose place among the nations we wish to see safeguarded and assured, should be accorded the freest opportunity of autonomous development.'

"Since that sentence was written and uttered to the Congress of the United States, the government of the United States has recognized that a state of belligerency exists between the Czecho-Slovaks and the German and Austro-Hungarian empires and that the Czecho-Slovak national council is a de facto belligerent government clothed with proper authority to direct the military and political affairs of the Czecho-Slovaks. It has also recognized in the fullest manner the justice of the nationalistic aspirations of the Jugo-Slavs for freedom.

"The President is, therefore, no longer at liberty to accept the mere 'autonomy' of these people as a basis of peace, but is obliged to insist that they, and not he, shall be the judges of what action on the part of the Austro-Hungarian government will satisfy their aspirations and their conception of their rights and destiny as members of the family of nations.

"Accept sir, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

"ROBERT LANSING."

PERILOUS SERVICE

Reference has been made to the new "baby tanks" that participated in the Picardy battle, and that are said to be quicker than a man in running and turning. Some description of these tanks is contained in a private letter just received from "somewhere in France." The writer says:

"The new French tanks are tiny little things, each just big enough for two men to crawl into. They arrived here on flat cars, and it is the funniest thing to see them get off. They look like clumsy baby elephants. They hesitate and wiggle nervously, and finally with great dignity they walk off the car and waddle off to their stamping grounds, and the next comes along until they are all lined up. This is the only branch of the service more dangerous than aviation (the baby tanks, not the big ones). In fact, it is so dangerous that each man has to be a volunteer and unmarried, the consequence being that, as most Frenchmen marry young, the tank crews are still younger. They wear short black leather coats, tight blue trousers, black leggings, chasseur officers' berets, a wide brown belt worn short-waisted, with a revolver and a long, thin dagger, and, just as artillerymen are usually big and blonde, these are small with black curly hair and bright complexions.

"One of them told me that when they were first sent in they were not armed at all, so the gentle boches used to climb on top of the tanks and stick their bayonets through the slit that the gunner looks out of, and, as the gunner has no more room to dodge a tortoise in his shell, he was rather helpless. So now they are armed with daggers, and they have made narrow slits all over the tanks, so when brother boche jumps on the roof the occupant pushes his knife through a slit and brother boche slides off. I would rather do anything than go in one of those things, for you have to crawl on your hands and knees. The gunner can stand provided he keeps in the same spot. It is all pitch dark, and the mechanism must be worked by feel. You want to scream the moment they shut the door on you."—The Argonaut.

THE GALLANT GERMAN NAVY

One of the oddest kinks in the kinky imperial mind is revealed in the reference to "my navy" in the kaiser's proclamation addressed to his military establishment. "My navy," he says, "is holding its own against the united enemy naval forces and supporting the army in its difficult struggle." Only a Teutonic mind could get any glory out of the performances of a navy that for four years has been skulking around the Kiel Canal and running every time an enemy ship was sighted. With such a battle scheme, "holding its own" was not the most difficult matter in the world.

If you refuse to fight it is certain that, in one sense, you cannot lose. In that sense the German navy has been a glorious victor. It has lost nothing because it has risked nothing. The kaiser's grandiloquent phrase gives the impression that the German navy has been rushing out every day to give battle to the "united enemy naval forces" against great odds and coming out of the struggle with honors even. What would the English and American fleets give for a chance at the German navy if it could be got away from its hole! But there is no chance. It is so much easier to win victories by running and hiding. The worst you can do is "hold your own."—Indianapolis News.
